Northwind University

Travel, Expense and Procurement Policy (FIN-204, rev. 7)

This document is fictional and provided for demonstration only.

1. Purpose and Scope

This policy applies to all faculty, staff, students and contractors who spend University funds, including funds from sponsored research awards. Where a sponsored award is more restrictive than this policy, the award terms take precedence.

Budget holders are responsible for ensuring that every expense is necessary for University business and properly documented.

2. Approvals

Expenses of $1,000 or more need manager approval.

Expenses of $10,000 or more need department director approval.

Expenses of $50,000 or more need CFO approval.

Gifts over $100 require the provost's approval.

Software subscriptions require IT approval.

3. Procurement

Do not purchase from Amazon Marketplace.

Purchases of $25,000 or more must be competitively bid through Procurement Services.

4. Travel

First class airfare is not allowed unless the flight exceeds six hours.

Hotel rates should be reasonable and customary for the location.

Hotels up to $350 per night in New York, Boston and San Francisco.

Rideshare and taxi fares up to $100 per ride.

Travelers should book through the University travel portal whenever possible.

5. Meals and Entertainment

Meals up to $75 per person.

Alcohol is not reimbursable except at approved client entertainment events.

Client entertainment must be modest and directly related to business.

6. Documentation

Receipts are required for any expense of $25 or more.

Expense reports must be submitted within 30 days of the expense.

Violations of this policy may result in denial of reimbursement and disciplinary action.
